M. J. Harper

Dear Mrs. Harper,

Words, words, words - how can write everything that I want to say? I'm afraid my literary talents aren't as great as Eddie's or Mike's - but I think I feel the same as they do, although I've known you a much shorter time. Oh, Mrs. Harper, I was so foolish last year not to get to know you much, much better! That's one of the stupidest things I've ever done. This year has gone by much too quickly - but even though we've had only a short time together, we've become very close.

Mrs. Harper, you've done more for me than I could find time or space to thank you for. I know you understand how grateful I am for everything, even if I can't find words to tell you.

Memories that will live forever -

When Carol and I asked you to sponsor the Drama Club - and you sacrificed so much for us. The little back room in the library, which served for cheerleader practices, cosy chats, frantic speech writings and term paper typings, and as a newspaper office.

"Our Miss Brooks" - without your hard work and love, we never would have survived. But you pulled us through, and we all love you for it.

And finally, graduation night when I cried on your shoulder and didn't want to leave. I still don't want to leave! There are so many people here that I'll really miss - so many people I love - and you are at the top of the list!

Love, Maggie

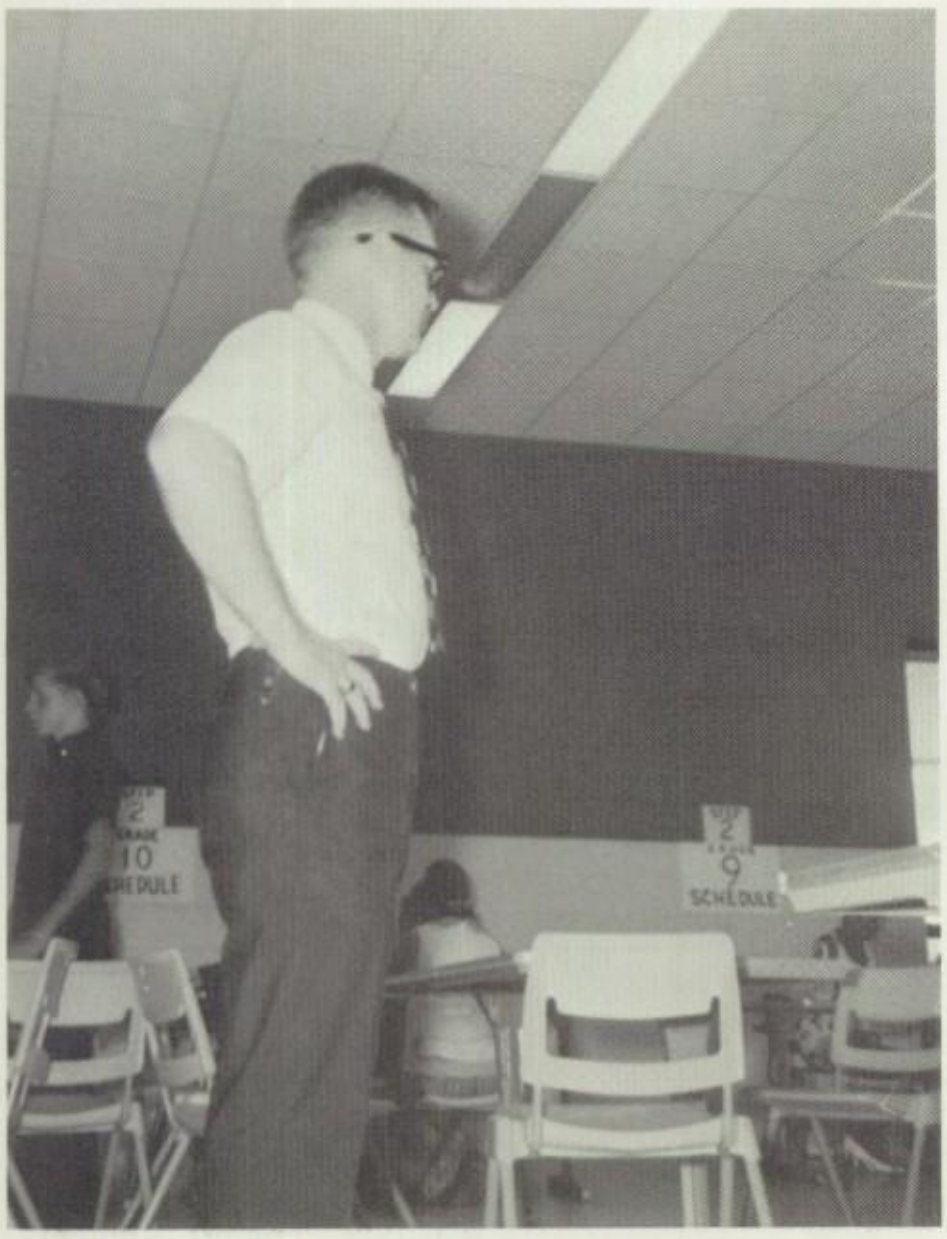
pictorial essay



August . . . and registration. Was it really three months since leaving behind the old routine of books, classes, tests, teachers? What would the new year bring? Would this be the year that you decided to work, to do your best to learn; or would this too just be another year of routine—of books, classes, tests, teachers . . . .

The first day
is lost in the back regions of one's mind.
Now all that remains is the coming day.

We are questioned,
subjected to tests,
forced to learn.
Often we ask the question: "Is it worth it?" The answer is simple– yes.

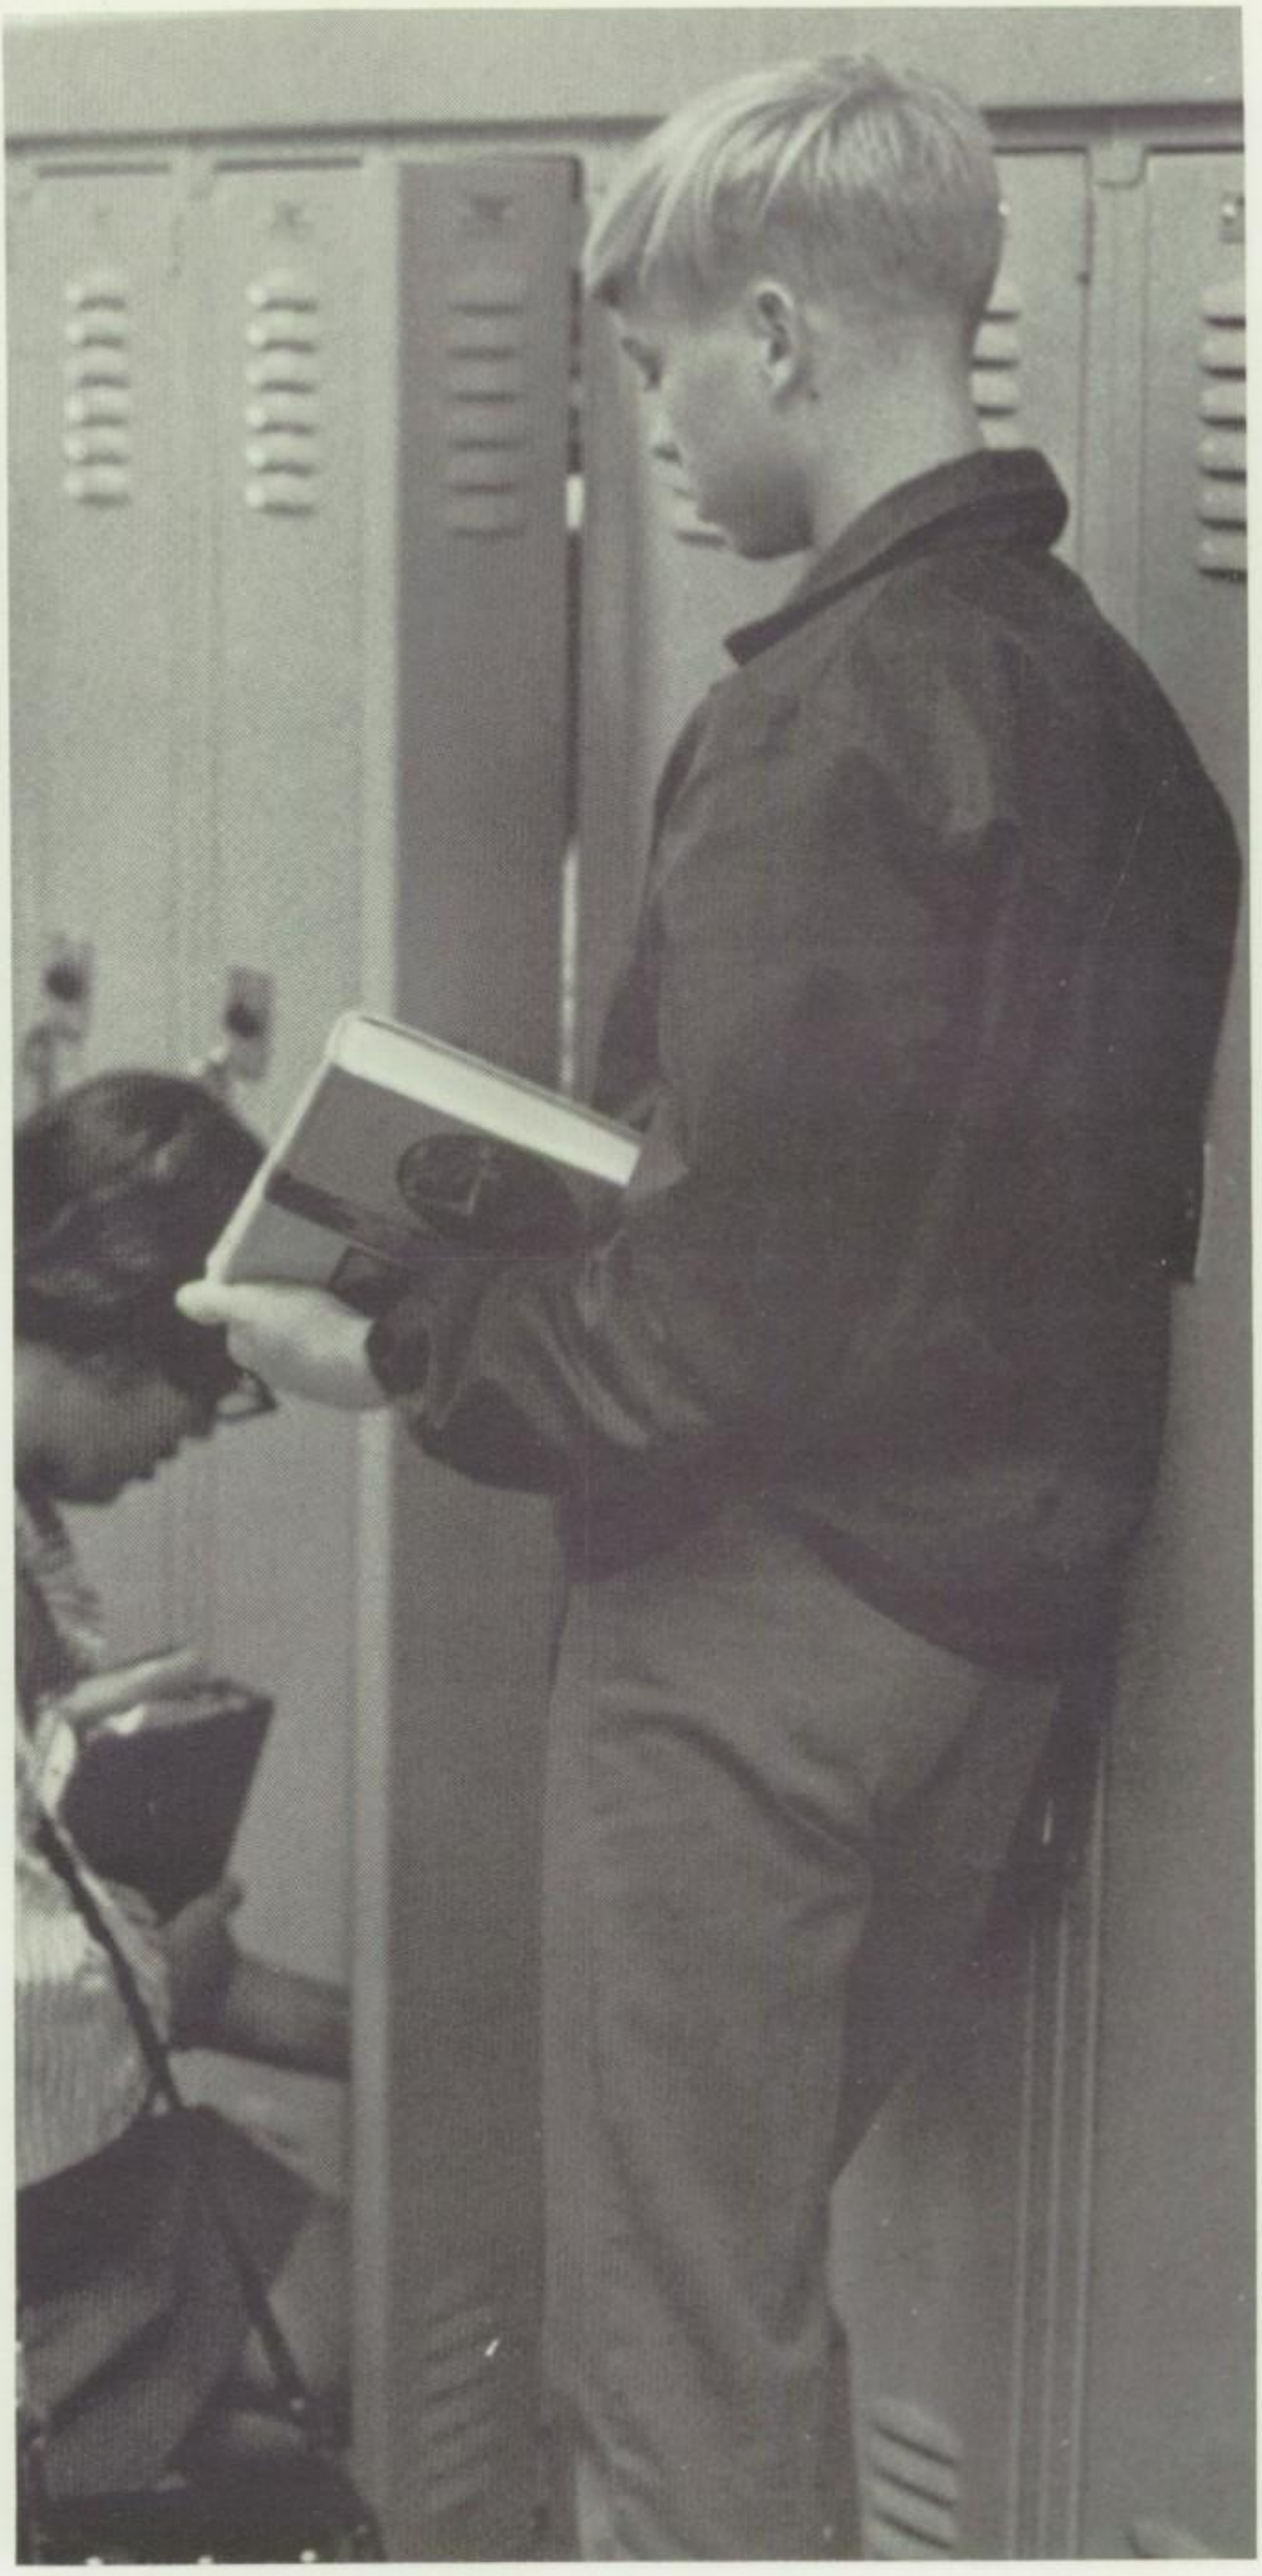
The future belongs to the fit. As Samuel Sm[illegible] said, "The strong man and the waterfall channel their own path."

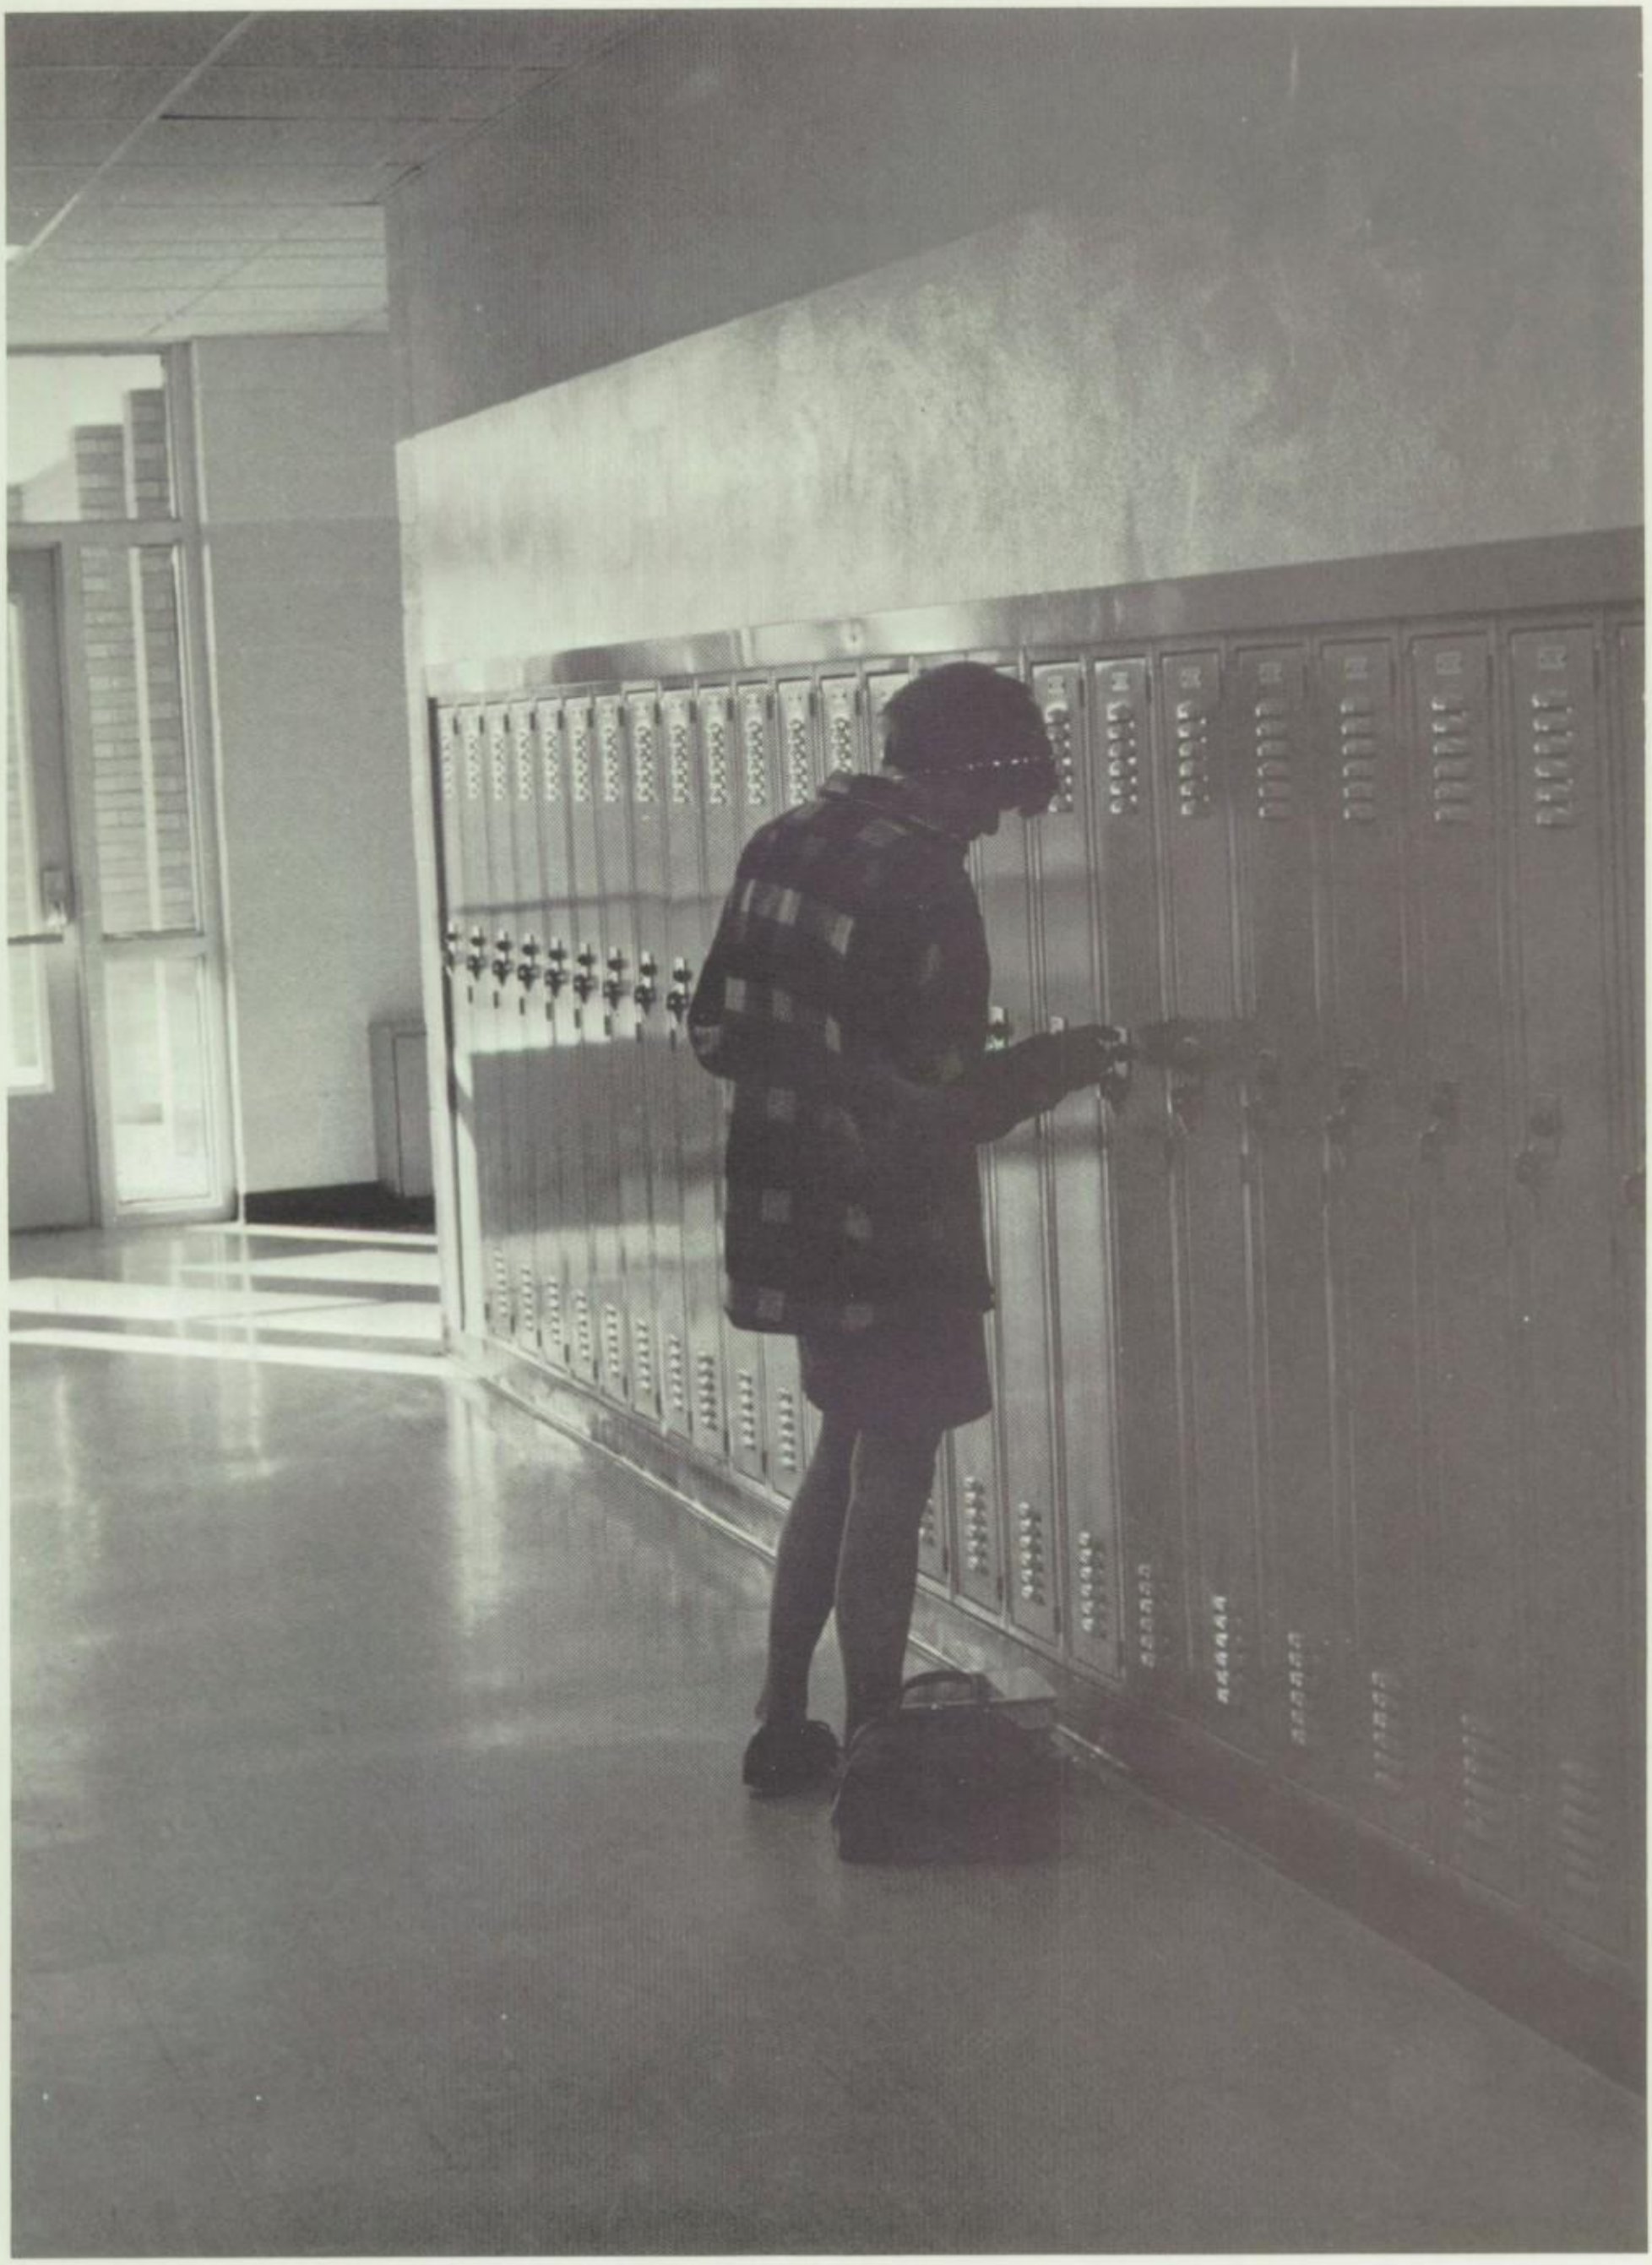
A study hall . . .

Lunch . . .

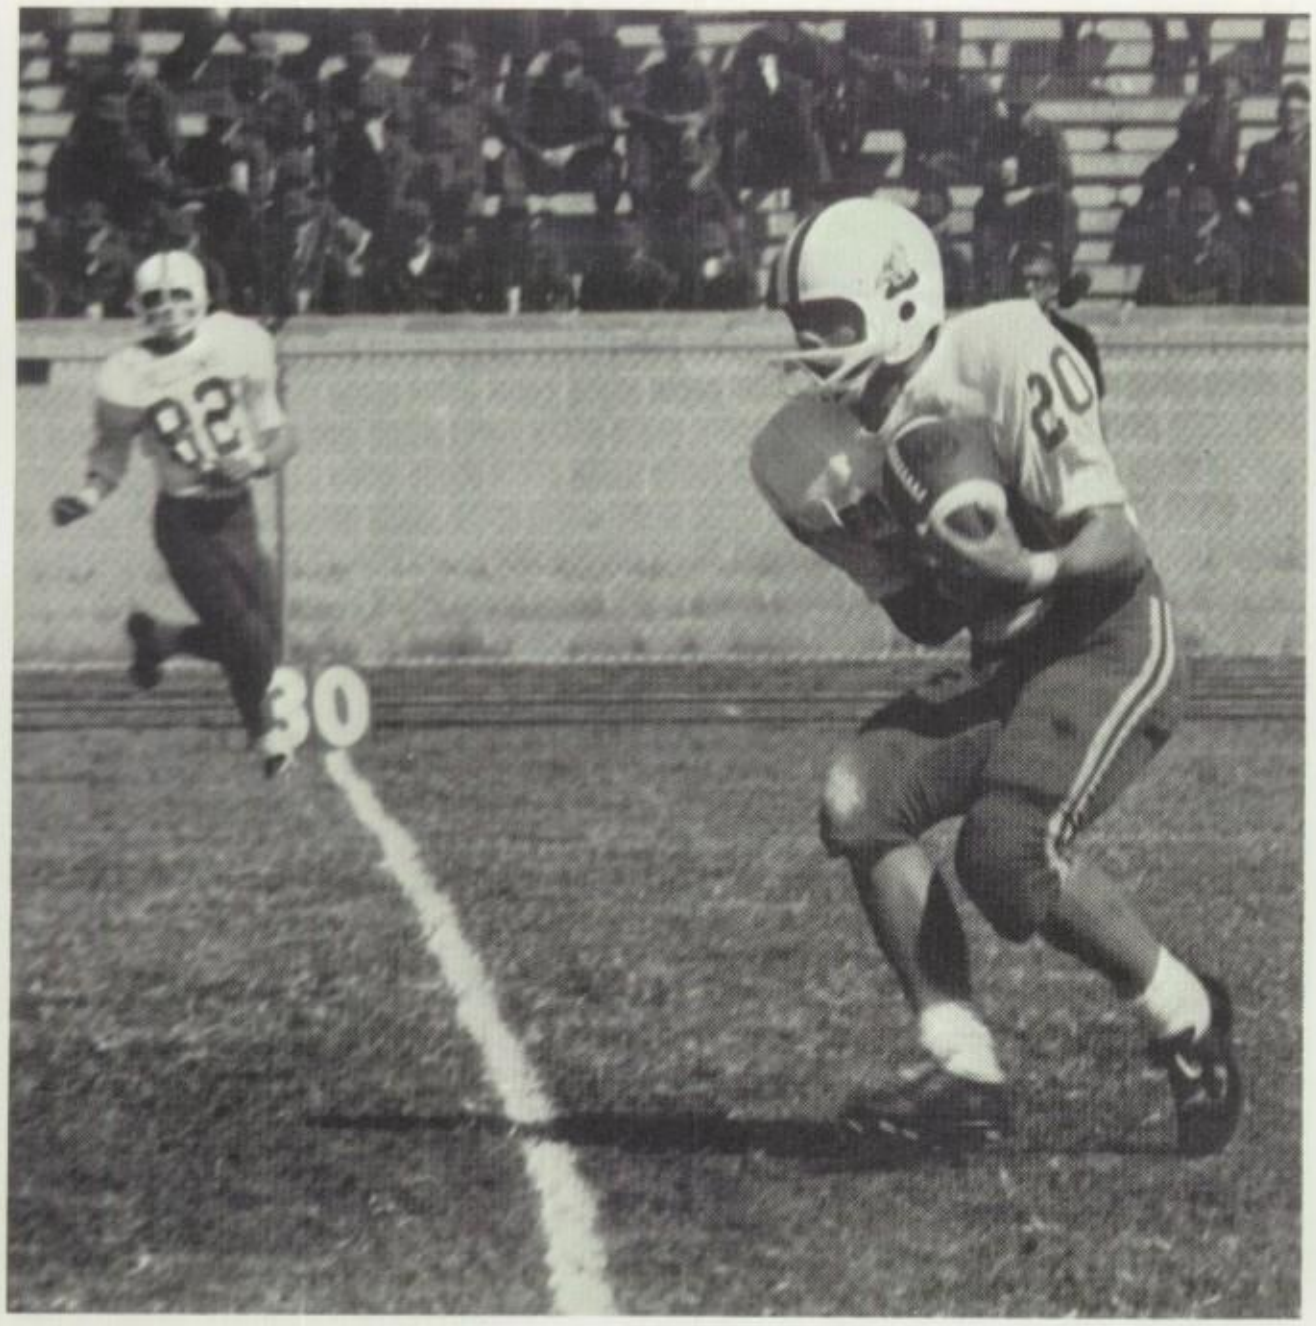


A stop at the lockers . . .

And then back to classes.



The day is over now. Tomorrow we start again; tomorrow we learn more.



Through the pangs of defeat and the joy of victory, these girls watched. More than once, their courage and devotion was the difference between a win and a loss.

DEDICATION

Nannie Jean dear, Thank you for
the memories:
making my day begin
at 8:05 A.M.;
for being a good listener
to my problems;
for sharing the joy of the
'69 Seniors;
for finding any book or
record needed;
for making the mechanical
devices run so smoothly;
for being such a lovable,
genuine person - Always,
I shall hold the memory
of our friendship as a rare and treasured
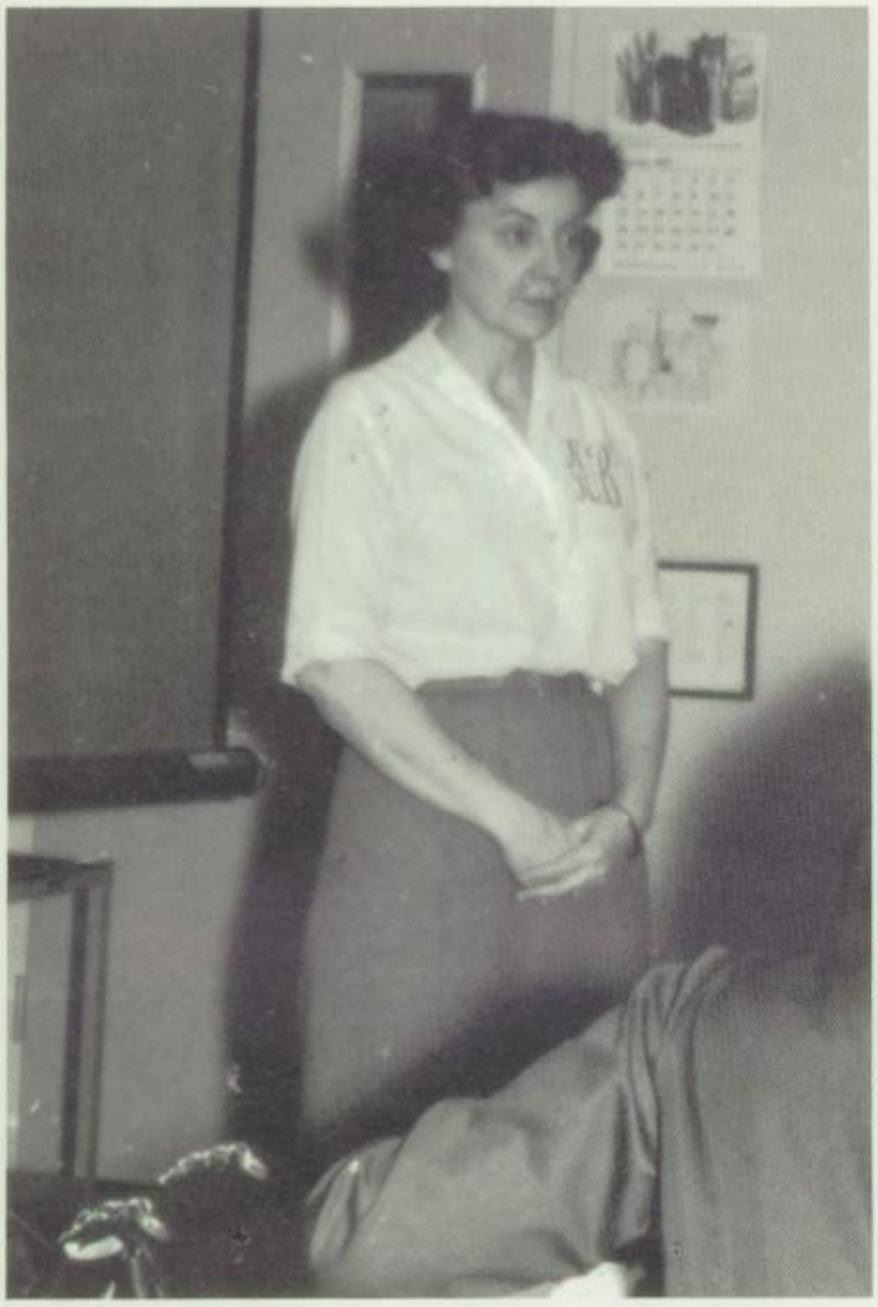
jewel.
My deepest love,
Nancy



Each year the Journalism Class dedicates the FALCON to an outstanding member of the FCHS faculty. It is with great pride and love that the Journalism Class of 1968-1969 presents this year's FALCON to Mrs. Nancy Norris Borchers. Seniors for the past seven years have known and admired this remarkable woman, this woman who is more than teacher, this woman who we can call friend. She has given of herself unselfishly many times for the benefit of the school and for her students. Mrs. Borchers has made the Senior play a yearly project—one in which she shows her dedication to the betterment of the high school and her fondness of "her" Seniors. Sadly we must say goodbye to Mrs. Borchers, as she leaves us to begin a new life next year. We take this opportunity to wish her the best of luck in everything that she does. With her goes the love of the Class of '69, the Class of '68, the Class of '67, the Class of . . . .

As a teacher of history I firmly believe that "we are a part of everyone we have ever known!" As a "councilor" I know that we grow through our relationships with others.

With this in thought in mind I hope you realize what these past 5 years of our professional lives has come for me.

And as a bonus, mine had some good laughs too!

JUNIORS

Mrs. Harper,

I'll never forget my sophomore year in your library. I was so afraid of you. You were always telling me to "shut up" and being afraid I did. But this year I was lucky enough to get to know you better. Now when you tell me to "shut up" or "sit down", I just ignore you!

I want to thank you for giving me the opportunity to do Jane Drew in the play. It was a chance I will never forget. And I am sure that you never will either. I just hope I lived up to your expectations. Be good and don't lose your southern accent - it's cute!

Yours truly,
Jane Drew

The American ideal of "government for the people, by the people" penetrates the walls of Fort Campbell High School and echos its truths, its promises, and its goals in her chambers. the FCHS student council is a symbol, a replica in miniature, of our nation's government. School government can be termed as a "preparatory course". For many students it is their first real encounter with government. Through the Council one learns to voice his opinions, to work for others.

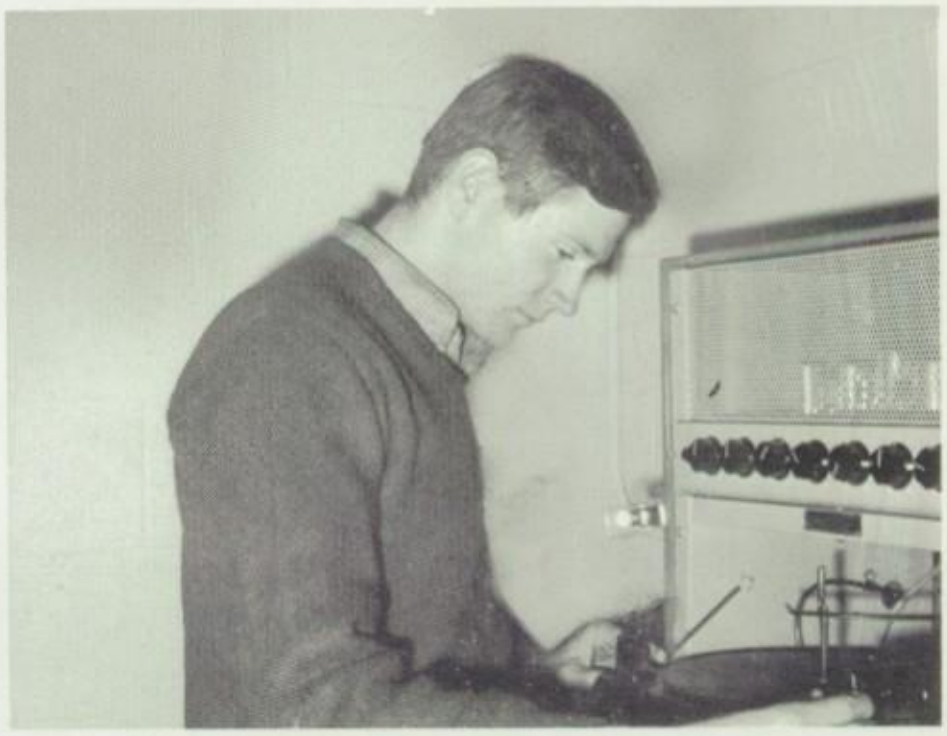
TALENT SHOW



The Student Council sponsored a six act talent show this year to the delight of FCHS students. After screening by a joint faculty-student board the Campbell performers appeared before the student body. Purpose–entertainment. Joi Purdy, Gwenda Eazer, Joe Glatzell, Angela Owens, Doretha Wiley, Carl Kennedy, Donald Moore, and Jo-Jo Warthen comprised the program which proved very successful. Singing (which you will recall occurred on two speeds) and dancing had its day at FCHS–a day which our performers and techical "experts" will not soon forget.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

Make a flashback and think of the "happenings" of '68–'69. The election of class officers issued in the new school year–putting students in the hands of capable leaders. The end of October saw an F.H.A. Mother & Daughter Banquet–hosted with the goal of improving family relations. Homecoming was the major event of the year–made sweeter by the first taste of victory. Junior and Senior girls squared off in the powderpuff game–bringing class rivalry out in the open. It ended in victory for the Juniors. Baskets of food donated by homerooms provided Christmas dinners for needy families in the Fort Campbell area. National Book Week found the Library Club presenting a quiz assembly and the N.H.S. sponsoring a book sale. Bess Madre captured the title of "Future Homemaker of Tomorrow," making her eligible for state competition. The Talent Show hosted by the student council revealed the hidden talents of many F.C. students. With Dental Health Week came the election of Mr. and Miss Smile. The dentists of Ft. Campbell presented F.C.H.S. students with a program about preventative dentistry–complete with a light show and drums. In early spring the N.H.S. held an auction at which students bid for items previously belonging to teachers. The plays put on by the Drama Club and Senior Class thespians were two major highlights of the year–Our Miss Brooks and Dino. The end of the year began closing in with the presentation of the prom, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," to the graduating senior class–finally uniting two rivals. Graduation sneaked up on everyone and marked a new beginning for graduates. Make a flashback. Remember . . .

Track

1968 TRACK TEAM. 1st row (1-r): Coach McCall, Mark Chapman (manager), Reginald Boston, Steven Forster, Steve Harris, Herie Polite Sam Gregg, Andre Bonnette, Frank Scott, Vic DeFiori, Kirby Jenquin. 2nd row: Bob Schade, Robert Kilby, Eric Stickles, Ron Cole, Ambrose Boston, Alan Boston, Charles Echols, Karl Douglas, Bucky Garrison, Jesse Owens, Robert Hollowell, Richard Pohl, Fred Ayers, Ray Metts.

From the start the team seemed to be marked for failure. A small turnout dimmed hopes for success. But, under the leadership of Coach Mills the 1968 Track Team went on to place second in WKC and first in the regionals.

Baseball

Two of our Falcons warm up before a game.

1968 BASEBALL TEAM. 1st row (l-r): John Deloach, Mark McCall, Carl Smith, Ken Leggett, Jay Pridham, Buddy Arnold, Mike Ferrazan, Donald Moore. 2nd row: Tim Warren, Tom Sanns, Mike Gammell, Mike Christian, Robert Hunsucker, Freddy Lord, Pedro Marrero, Otis Larry. 3rd row: Wayne Batt (manager), Joe Tallman, Shaun Jones, Jim Hoeh, Walter Williams.

Tennis

This year's team was a young one. It played with inexperience, but with devotion. It was a year of learning; a year of exercising newly acquired skills. On record the season was a poor one. But, can the success of any team be measured only by the number of wins and losses?

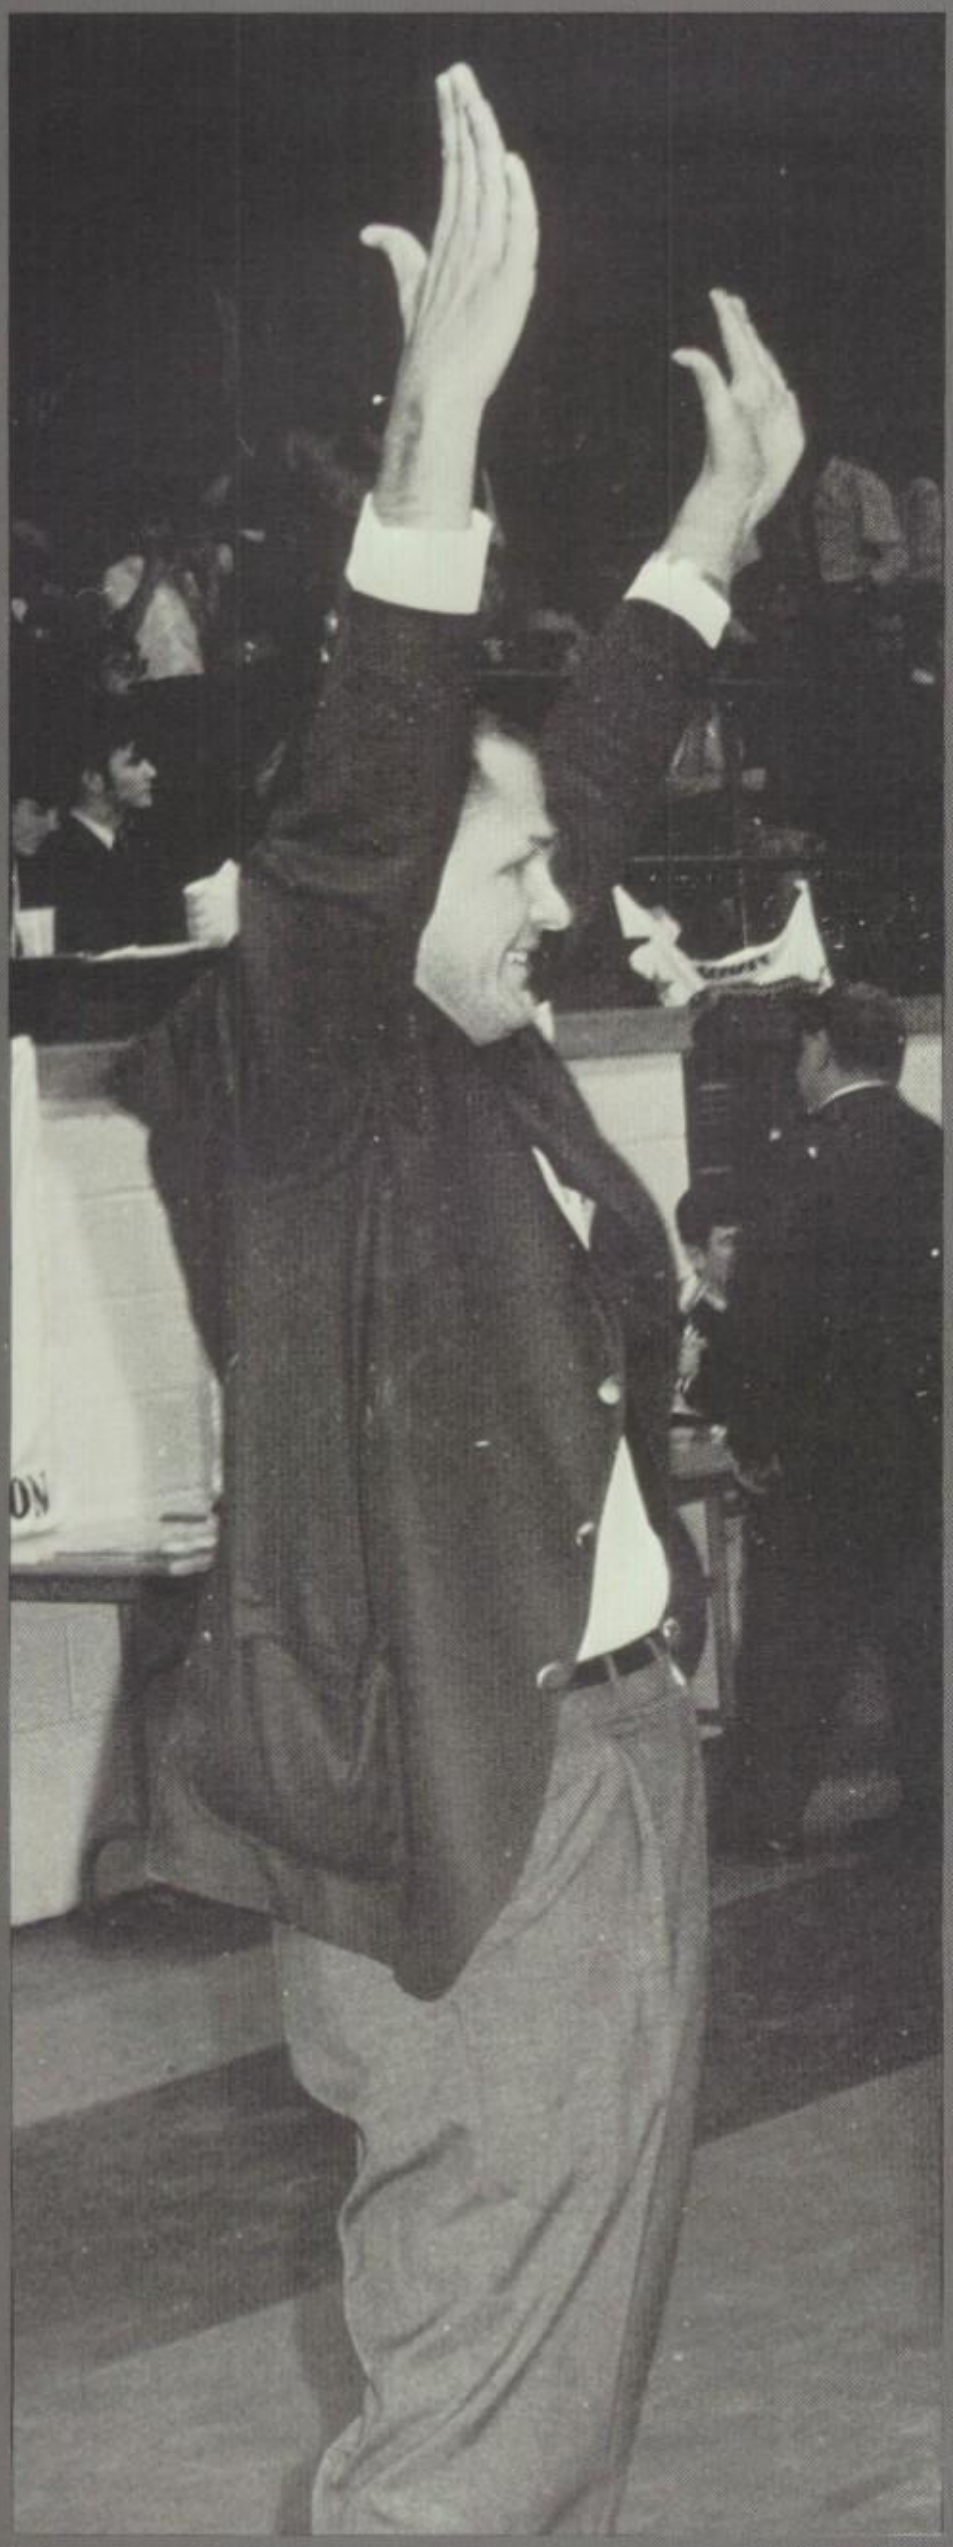
WRESTLING



The '68-'69 season proved to be the most successful wrestling season in FCHS history. Under the leadership of Coach Patterson a team was built with only a few returning wrestlers. Through hard work and dedication, team after team fell to the Falcon wrestlers. The season ended with a 12 and 2 record. The W.K.C. championship fell into Falcon hands for the third consecutive year. The team took second place in the regionals, bowing only to the defending state champions, North Hardin. Steve Johnson and Jim Hoeh both took a state crown—marking a first for Fort Campbell's fighting Falcons.

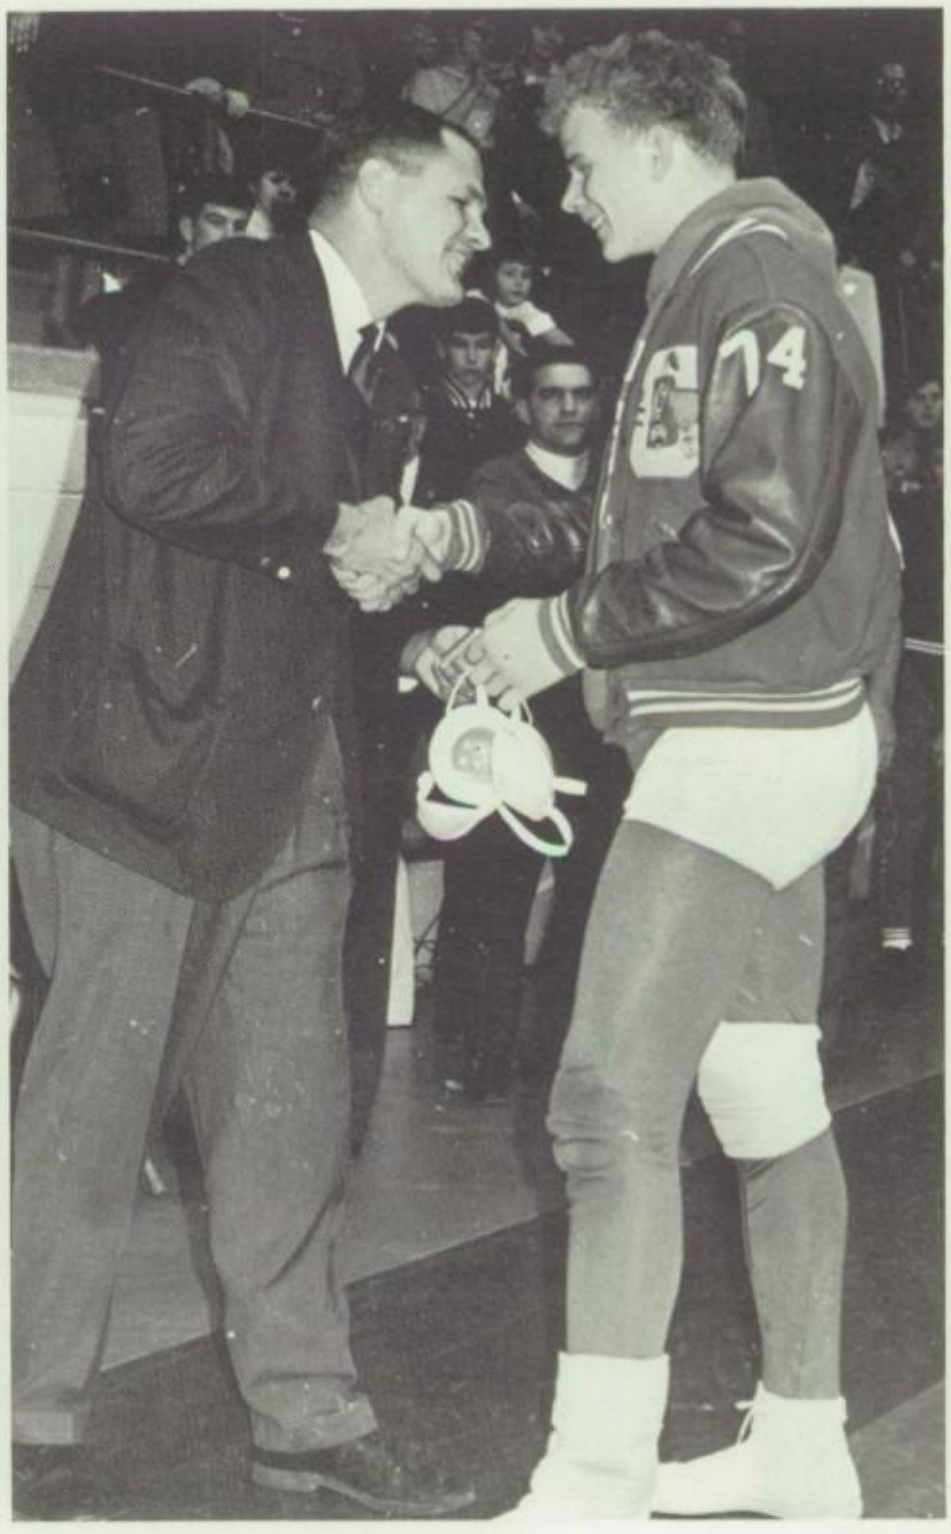
Coach Patterson's first state champ, Steve Johnson . . .



was soon followed by his second, Jim Hoeh.

Mrs. Harper,

It's very hard to write something of any meaning to someone who means so much to me as you do. Thanks for the attention, concern, stamina, and most of all the love you've shown me these four years. I'll always remember you and you haven't seen the last of Edward Paul.

Love always,
Eddie Selego

As I leave I realize that whatever I become in the future, you made possible. I thank you.

AUTOGRAPHS

Dear Mrs. Harper,

Well, this is the end of the school year already. It seems as though we just started and its time to stop already. When you enjoy the company you keep, time sure flies. I'm talking about you — I don't think I've ever, in these last two years, seen you when you were not smiling or saying something of good cheer. Your always there, to help a student find a book or to tell someone to sit down and be quiet. I don't think I could ever list all the things you've done. You are really a person whom I admire. I just hope I can be as good a person as you are. I'm sure I speak for all FCHS in saying "Thank you" for being our librarian. I'm looking forward to seeing you again next year. Remember Richard Haynes, and everyone else in 4th period study hall. We all love you.

Love
Margie Hall

AUTOGRAPHS

Mrs. Harper –

I've known you now for almost six years. You were one of the first people I met when I came here in seventh grade. It's really rather ironical – that you and I are both leaving Fort Campbell next year. More than any other person – I'll miss you, Mrs. Harper, when I leave for the University of Kentucky. I hope that in the future, regardless of the fact that we will be further apart than we have ever been before, you and I can remain good friends. Friends – that's what I find so amazing about our relationship: we are really friends, dear close friends. Very seldom does a student find, with a teacher, the kind of relationship you and I have. You know Mr. Perry has always been against that friendship. Maybe I do take advantage of our friendship now and then, but I don't mean to. I've always resented his interference with us.

Remember (I really don't know why I ask - I know you do) the many times he upset me. Nobody but you could soothe me, calm me, tell me what to do about my problems. If not for respect of you and your judgement I would have done something very foolish, and as you have said many times, "- something that could ruin my future." Thank you, Mrs. Harper, so much for your wise guidance.

I recall when I had deep, disturbing fears about life after death. You really couldn't resolve anything for me, but you listened. Thank you.

Throughout all the many stages of the yearbook you were there to lean on. I felt like quitting many times, but you kept me going. Thank you.

The play was alot of fun. I must have really kept you on the brink of a mental breakdown with my threats of quitting.

I was so happy that "Our Miss Brooks" was a success - mainly 'cause you did it. You know how much you meant to the cast, they really love you, just as I do.

We had alot of fun working at the old library, as well as the new, this summer, didn't we. It was alot of work and alot of fun, fun that will always be fond memories. (I'm so proud of my college catalog section!) But, again there was Mr. Perry to mar the happiness.

Last year, ninth grade, junior high - all those years were made better because I knew a woman named Mamie Jean Harper. Thank you, Mrs. Harper, for all the many things that you've done for me. I'll always love you.
